

FDR State Park

Hurricane Sandy Cleanup Day

Saturday November 17 2012

9:30-3:00

As Hurricane Sandy roared through FDR State Park on Monday October 29, she left over 100 down trees, and debris in her wake. Employees from other state parks have joined FDR staff to remove the fallen trees, but more help is needed to make the park fully functional.

Join others who love FDR Park and help clean up the mess Sandy left behind

- 🍂 Move branches to the road for pick up
- 🍂 Rake debris into piles for removal

Park in Parking Lot 1 – Check in at Pavilion 1
Dress in layers of work clothes
Bring work gloves and leaf rakes if possible

Groups are welcome. Participants may contact Susan Butterfass at the Park Office to sign up call 914-245-4434 x102, or email
