

Yorktown Landmarks Preservation Commission

November 11, 2020

ZOOM Meeting

Attendance: Lynn Briggs, Chair, Bridget Krowe, Terry Naumann, Nancy Milanese were present as were Brendan Murphy, Tom McLoughlin and Christine Sisler. Excused: Adam Fetzer and Edwin Pell.

Lynn and Adam were reappointed to the Heritage Preservation Commission for a period of three (3) years expiring October 31, 2023.

Lynn send a copy of the Hallocks House (Adam's House) via email to the Board before the meeting for their review and comments. All comments were positive and the Certificate of Appropriateness was approved. Adam can now go to the Building Department.

Also, a Certificate of Appropriateness is being worked on for the Community Church on Baptist Church Road. Since it's an historic building the doors have to be custom built as the center rail. Lynn working with the contractor.

Outreach Program

This program collated between the HPC and the Shrub Oak International School has continued with 55 more markers cleaned at the Community Church Cemetery. This may be put on hold due to the approaching cold weather.

The boy scouts have cleared debris from the grounds of the Amawalk Meeting House.

Enslow American History Music Performance

This appeared on Yorktown Channel, Optimum Channel 20 and FIOS Channel 33, at 7:30 pm on November 7 and 14th. How can we find out how many listeners turned it to hear this performance. Tom will look into this.
